The fine print on access,
subscription terms and more

The following Agency Comp User Agreement and Terms of Service, together with any documents incorporated by reference (collectively, these “Terms”), govern your subscription to and use of our proprietary software platform, referred to as “Agency Comp” (or any successor or replacement software), for its intended purpose of assisting in reporting, tracking, analyzing, and projecting premium, commission, and revenue, based on content and information provided by you, the end-user insurance agent, broker, or brokerage general agent (referred to as a “user” or “you”). The proprietary agencycomp software platform may also be referred to as the “Service.” These Terms constitute a binding legal agreement between you and Agency Comp, LLC, a Texas limited liability company (“Agency Comp, LLC”, “we” or “us”). At this time, the Service is available to U.S. residents only.

By subscribing to the Service or by clicking to accept or agree when this option is made available to you, you accept and agree to be bound by these Terms. If you do not agree to these Terms, do not subscribe to or use the Service.

1. Fees and Payment Terms.

- a. The subscription fees are non-refundable. Currently all subscriptions are monthly, and can be canceled at any time as discussed in Section 2 below. The subscription fees are automatically billed in advance each month based on your then-current Service Tier. Your subscription will automatically renew each month for the Subscription Term. “Subscription Term” means the period of time that you have a valid, paid subscription to use the Service as described herein; the Subscription Term begins on the date that we first receive payment for the Service subscription and ends on the effective date of cancellation.
- b. Subscription to the Service requires a valid credit card or debit card for our third-party payment processor to retain for billing and payment purposes. (We do not receive or store payment information.) If your payment card expires or is canceled or otherwise invalidated such that our third-party payment processor cannot process the subscription fees, your subscription may be canceled as described in Section 2 below. The monthly fee is based on your chosen Service Tier, which you can choose and change within your profile at any time. If you change to an upgraded Service Tier, the increased subscription fees will go into effect immediately.
- c. The stated subscription fees exclude any applicable taxes imposed by any governmental authority, and you are responsible for paying such taxes. If we are legally obligated to collect and remit taxes on the subscription fees, they will be charged to your payment card in addition to the subscription fees.
- d. Pricing for the Service is subject to change at any time, provided that we have notified current users by any reasonable means (including by posting on our website or notice to any account email address provided) at least sixty (60) days before the change goes into effect. If you do not cancel the Service, the new pricing will go into effect automatically for all subsequent billing.

2. Suspension and Cancellation.

- a. Upon subscription cancellation for any reason, all User Content, Reports, and any other information or data you provided or stored in connection with your subscription will be deleted and will no longer be retrievable by you. However, we may retain certain data and information as specified in our Privacy Policy. There are no refunds for early cancellation, for non-use of the Service, or for any other reason.
- b. Your subscription to the Service can be canceled in one of four ways:
  - i. You may cancel your subscription at any time by completing the cancellation process within your Service profile or by emailing us at support@agencycomp.com (if the latter, you must receive an email confirmation back from us to verify the cancellation). Cancellation is effective immediately.
  - ii. If your payment card expires or is canceled or otherwise invalidated such that our third-party payment processor cannot process the subscription fees, and valid payment card information is not provided to us within sixteen (16) days after the monthly billing date, your subscription will be suspended. You will not be able to use the Service or access any User Content or Reports during any period of suspension (although your User Content and Reports are preserved during the suspension). The monthly subscription fees will continue to accrue during any suspension. You may cancel at any time during the suspension as described above. In order to reactivate your subscription, you must update your payment information with a valid payment card and pay all past-due monthly subscription fees that accrued during the period of suspension. Subscriptions that are not reactivated within ninety (90) days will be canceled. You will receive prior notice(s) of suspension and cancellation by email so that you are reminded to reactivate your subscription.
  - iii. We may discontinue the Service and/or cancel your subscription for any reason at any time, provided that we have notified you by any reasonable means (including by notice to the email address you have provided) at least thirty (30) days before the next monthly billing date.
  - iv. We may cancel the Service subscription of any user when we have reason to believe is violating these Terms, without prior notice.

3. Accessing the Service; Account Security.

- a. To subscribe to the Service, you will be asked to provide certain information for profile registration (including name, email address, mailing address, phone number, and payment information). Payment information is retained by our third-party payment processor only. All the information you provide in connection with your profile registration and Service subscription must be correct, current, and complete. You must be 18 years of age or older and a U.S. resident to use the Service.

- b. You are responsible for keeping your username and password secure and confidential, and you must not disclose them to any other person or entity. Your profile is personal to you and cannot be shared with any other person, nor is any other person allowed to access the Service through your profile except as permitted by us. Certain Service Tiers allow additional individuals to access the Service under your profile (with restricted administrative/data entry rights). You are responsible for the actions of anyone using your subscription or profile, whether with or without your permission. You should use particular caution when accessing your subscription from a public or shared computer. Notify us immediately of any unauthorized access to or use of your subscription or profile, or any other breach of security.
- c. We reserve the right to alter, modify, update, upgrade, and/or replace the Service or any component or feature thereof, in our sole discretion, without notice to any user. We are not liable to any user if for any reason all or any part of the Service is unavailable at any time. From time to time, we may suspend or restrict access to the Service (whether for maintenance, updates, or otherwise), and/or we may restrict access to some components or features to certain users. You are responsible for making all arrangements necessary for you to have access to the Service, including internet access and the appropriate computer hardware/devices to enable your use of the Service.
- d. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, we have the right to suspend any subscription or profile if at any time we believe it may have been compromised or accessed without authorization. You must promptly notify us in writing of any unauthorized use of the Service or a violation of these Terms, and take all steps necessary to terminate such unauthorized use or violation.
